PREMIUM ART EXPERIENCE DEBUTS AS WINE CLUBS SEEK STRONGER MEMBER ENGAGEMENT

Napa and Sonoma, CA, Monday, April 6, 2026 — Napa and Sonoma wineries now have a new premium member experience designed to deepen wine club engagement and distinguish their event programming.

“Paint-n-Sip by Mayee Futterman Art — Napa & Sonoma” is a professionally hosted Chinese Brush Painting experience created specifically for wine club members. The experience supports a key winery objective: deliver distinctive, memorable programming that strengthens member loyalty and reinforces brand identity.

As wineries compete for attention within increasingly crowded club calendars, traditional tastings and release parties alone are often no longer sufficient to create lasting impressions. Paint-n-Sip by Mayee Futterman Art -- Napa & Sonoma -- introduces a refined, culturally rich experience that complements existing hospitality offerings while requiring minimal operational lift from winery staff.

The experience includes a 2–3 hour guided painting session for 20 to 30 members. All materials are provided, and the event is designed to integrate seamlessly into winery hospitality spaces. Members leave with finished artwork and a shared experience that becomes part of their story with the winery.

“This is about bringing members together in a way that feels special and genuinely enjoyable,” said Mayee Futterman, award-winning artist and founder of the program. “When members laugh together, create something beautiful, and experience something they don’t find everywhere else, it strengthens their connection not only to each other but to the winery itself. These events are fun, memorable, and truly distinctive.”

The experience is positioned as a premium club offering tailored to the standards of Napa and Sonoma hospitality.

Wineries benefit from elevated member programming, enhanced perceived exclusivity, strong visual content for marketing and organic social media, and clearly defined execution roles that reduce staff burden.
