MAYEE FUTTERMAN, ARTIST ONE-WOMAN SHOW AT THE ALTADENA TOWN AND COUNTRY CLUB, ALTADENA, CA

Chinese Brush Painting Virtuoso Mayee Futterman brings to life masterful brushstrokes of flora, landscapes, and creatures in her first one-woman show

Los Angeles, California, Tuesday, September 13, 2022: Mayee Futterman, Artist, announces her one-woman show entitled "The Four Treasures -- The Art of Mayee Futterman" showcasing 46 floral, landscape, and animal-creature paintings at the Altadena Town and Country Club in Altadena, CA.

"I am thrilled and honored that the Altadena Town and Country Club is hosting an exhibit of my work. In this exhibit, guests will enjoy a vibrant curation of paintings that fit the Club's unique rooms, ambience, and views," said Ms. Futterman who is based in Encino, CA. "The Four Treasures -- brush, rice paper, ink stick, and ink stone -- have defined this art form for thousands of years. The dynamic interaction and integration of these Four Treasures is both transformational and fun."

"The Altadena Town and Country Club is excited to showcase Ms. Futterman's beautiful Chinese Brush Paintings," said Craig Sloane, General Manager. "The 46 paintings are a perfect fit for our Club."

During the exhibit, the Club will hold an Artist Reception; an art talk at which Ms. Futterman will discuss her ideas and inspiration; Paint & Sip party at which Club members will practice Chinese Brush to celebrate the "Mid-Autumn Festival," a multi-cultural event.

There are a diverse range of artistic themes from the Welcome Peonies, In the Garden Flowers, and Auspicious Creatures to the soulful Misty Mountain and Waterfalls series, Flowers on Fans, and Blooms of the Day.

The show opened in April 2022 and will run through the end of December 2022. Several paintings have been sold. To schedule an in-person private tour with the Artist, please email Ms. Futterman directly at mayee@mayeefutterman.com.
